

OSSTF/FEESO Research Grant for Emergent Issues and Priorities

To: Presidents and All Members

From: Joel Duff, Associate General Secretary – Professional Services

For Information

OSSTF/FEESO is strongly committed to supporting and promoting evidence-informed practices in public education. As part of that commitment, OSSTF/FEESO supports high-quality research and is pleased to announce up to three research grants of up to $3,500 each, to support conducting, presenting, and publishing research in support of public education and anti-racism.

Award Criteria:

- Relevance to 2023-2024 research priority, listed below;
- Willingness to write a summary report for OSSTF/FEESO and/or an article for Education Forum magazine;
- Evidence of support for public education and/or the labour movement in previous publications and activities;
- Quality and feasibility of the project for which funding is sought;
- A budget of estimated research expenses.

Theme Identified for the 2023 – 2024 Academic Year:

- How identity-based hate speech impacts school climate and student/staff mental health

Note: At least one of the three awards will be reserved for researchers who identify as Indigenous, Black, or racialized.

The application deadline for the 2023 – 2024 Academic year is January 5, 2024. All successful applicants will be informed by February 15, 2024.

The application forms and any attachments can be emailed to Peter Bates (peter.bates@osstf.ca) and copied to Loredana Merenda (loredana.merenda@osstf.ca). You will receive an email confirming your submission once received.
